WASHINGTON CITY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28.

In the district composed of Frederick, Washington, and Alleghany counties, the republican Electors had 4,356, and the federal 3,889 votes.

The following gentlemen have been chosen Electors for the state of Pennsylvania; they are all decidedly republican:

Charles Thomson, William Montgomery, Thomas Leiper, Michael Leib, Joseph Engle, William Rodman, Archibald Darrah, Jacob Weygant, Joseph Lefever, Gabriel Hiester, jun. George Hartshan, Adamsen Tannehill, James Cowden, William Wilson, Robert Giffen, Jacob Hostetter, David Fullerton, Peter Kemmell, Joseph Huston, and John M'Dowell.

Mr. Cutts is re-elected a representative from the state of Massachusetts by a majority of about 150.

The following are the aggregate votes in the state of Ohio for Electors:

Repub.		Fed.
Massie	3,645	Putnam	1,174
Wood	3,331	Wells	1,057
McCune	2,307	Skenck	1,031

The republicans were so confident of victory, that they brought out but an inconsiderable portion of their strength.

The legislature of New Jersey have, without opposition, confirmed the choice of Electors made by the people.

Christopher Fowler, Thomas P. Jones, James Rhodes, and Thomas Noyes, all federal, are chosen Electors for the state of Rhode Island by a majority of 443 votes.

Correct information from North Carolina enables us to state that eleven republican Electors, and two federal are chosen. The former will all vote for Mr. Madison. In the remaining district, owing to a mistake of the Sheriff in holding the election in the county of Chatham, on days other than those fixed by law, it is doubtful whether a federal or republican is chosen. In case the votes given in Chatham are admitted, the republican candidate will be elected.

The Troop of Horse of this City, commanded by Captain Brent, have patriotically offered their services to the government, as a part of the quota called for under the late requisition made by the Secretary of War, which have been accepted.

EMBARGO.—The Circuit Court of the U. S. commenced a special session in this town, on last Thursday, for the trial of Frederick, Job and John Hoxie, on indictments for high treason.—Present, the hon. Brockholst Livingston, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the U. S. and the hon. Elijah Paine, Judge of the district court of Vermont. The court were occupied in impannelling the jury and other preparatory business, till Saturday evening. On Monday morning, Frederick Hoxie was called to the bar, and a number of witnesses were examined on the part of the government, when the Counsel for the prisoner stated, that they had several witnesses, but should decline taking up the time of the Court in their examination, as they conceived it wholly unnecessary. Col. Harrington opened the cause and recapitulated the evidence on the part of government. The hon. Samuel Hitchcock and Daniel Ferrand, Esqs. spoke in behalf of the prisoners, and the district attorney made the closing plea. Judge Livingston then rose, and in a clear, concise, energetic and profoundly eloquent address to the jury, expounded the law, and defined the crime of treason; in the course of which, he cited many precedents; comprising the opinions of the most distinguished Judges in England and America, in which opinions the court perfectly coincided, to show, that no single act in opposition to, or in evasion of a law, however violent or flagrant, where the object is private gain, can be constituted into levying war against the U. States—the offence set up in the indictment.

The jury retired about half past eleven o'clock at night, and in a few moments returned with their verdict—NOT GUILTY.

On Tuesday morning, the District Attorney entered a Nolle Prosequi on the other Indictments, and the Court adjourned without day.

Philadelphia, November 24.

FEVER AT MARTINIQUE.—Accounts from that island to the 20th October, state that the yellow-fever had commenced its ravages there. A considerable number of Americans have fallen victims to this dreadful disorder, among whom were two men belonging to the ship Bonetta of Salem.

On the night of the 7th inst. the Steam Engine establishment at Wilmington, N. C. was destroyed by fire. It is said the building was insured for 15,000 dollars by the Charleston branch of the London Phoenix company.

The brig Juliana, Lee, that was bound from St. Vincents, for this port, captured by the French and scuttled, was fallen in with by a British frigate, and towed into St. Kitts. They found on board the Juliana 40 puncheons of rum, 35 of which they hold subject to the order of the concern, detaining only five puncheons for salvage.

Capt. Smith, arrived at Boston on Friday from Martinique—left Moran the 23d Oct. Two days previous to his sailing, accounts were received there, that 14 sail of British vessels and 8000 troops had arrived at Barbadoes. It was supposed their object was to attack Martinique. Provisions of every kind had risen 30 per cent. at Martinique.

Charleston, November 16.
