

1. Mann Page, eldest, born at Rosewell, 1766; removed to Shelly, Gloucester County, Virginia, and married, 5th June, 1788, Elizabeth, eldest daughter and sixth child of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, York County, Virginia.
2. John Page (No. 1), born about 1768; died infant.
3. Robert Page, born about 1770; died unmarried, at Yorktown, Virginia, aged about 25 years.
4. Sally Burwell Page, born about 1771; married, about 1790, William, eldest son and child of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia.
5. John Page (No. 2), born about 1773; drowned in Carter's Creek, in 1784, aged about 11 years.
6. Alice Page, born at Rosewell about 1775; married, first, about 1795, Dr. John Augustine Smith, of Yorktown Virginia, by whom she had as follows:
 - (1) Robert K. Smith, first of Louisville, Kentucky, and then of Lexington, Mo.; died 1877, aged about 82 years. He married, about 1825, Mary Fry, of Albemarle County, Virginia.
 - (2) John Page Smith; died about 1875 in Louisville, Ky. He married twice, and had several daughters and two sons, one of whom was killed in the late war.
 - (3) Augustine Smith; removed to Alabama, and died in Mobile, leaving three sons and two daughters.
 - (4) Lucy Calthroe Smith; married, 1835, Ralph Diggs, of Louisa County, Virginia. He removed to Alabama, and died in 1836. The widow now lives in Shepherdstown, Jefferson County, West Virginia, with her nephew, Dudley Diggs Pendleton.
 - (5) William Smith; removed to Alabama.
 - (6) Rev. Dudley D. Smith, of Wilmington, Del.; married twice.
 Alice Page (the widow Smith) married, secondly, in 1812, Col. Dudley Diggs, of Louisa County, Virginia, and had Elizabeth Diggs, who married, in 1840, Hugh N. Pendleton, and was his second wife. (See Pendleton.)
7. Frances Page, born at Rosewell about 1777; married, first, in 1795, Thomas Nelson, Jr., second son of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia. Their daughter, Thomasia, married, 1821, Bishop William Meade, of Virginia, and was his second wife. Frances Page (the widow Nelson) married, secondly, about 1811, Dr. Carter Berkeley, of Edgewood, Hanover County, Virginia.
8. Francis Page, born at Rosewell about 1781, removed to Rug Swamp, Hanover County, Virginia, and married, in 1806, Susan, fourth