

Virginia. He married, in 1788, Sarah Page, of Broadneck, Hanover County, Virginia. As four other children had died infants—names unknown—when Robert was born, he was really the eleventh child, although the seventh survivor.

8. Maria (called "Molly") Page, born about 1765; married, first, John Byrd; secondly, Archie Bolling; and thirdly, Peter Randolph; by none of whom had she any issue.
9. Matthew Page, born about 1767; died unmarried.
10. Thomas Page, born about 1773; married, about 1798, Mildred, daughter of Edmund Pendleton, father of Edmund Pendleton, who married Jane B. Page, daughter of the above-named John Page (No. 2) and Elizabeth Burwell, his wife. Of the children of Thomas Page and Mildred Pendleton, his wife, Mildred Page married Palmer.
11. There were also Thomas, Henry, and Robert, of whom nothing at present is known.
12. Lucy Page, youngest, born about 1775; married, about 1792, Francis Nelson, of Mt. Air, Hanover County, Virginia, fourth son and child of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia.

V. MANN PAGE, of Fairfield, Clarke County, Virginia, eldest son and child of Hon. John Page, of North End, Gloucester (now Matthews) County, Virginia, and Jane Byrd, his wife, was born at the last-named place about 1742. It is not known when he died or where he was buried. He married, about 1767, Mary Mason, daughter of Samuel Seiden, of Salvington, Stafford County, Virginia. There are two Salvingtons, viz: Upper Salvington, on Potomac Run, and Lower Salvington, on Potomac Creek. It is not known which of the two is meant here.

Their only known surviving children were as follows, viz:

1. William Byrd Page, eldest, born about 1768; married, about 1793, Anne, daughter of Richard Henry Lee, and sister of General Henry Lee (Light Horse Harry.)
2. Jane Byrd Page, born about 1770; married, about 1790, Major Thomas Swann, of Baltimore, Maryland, from whom the wealthy family in that city is descended.

V. JOHN PAGE, of Caroline County, Virginia, second son and child of Hon. John Page, of North End, Gloucester (now Matthews) County, Virginia, and Jane Byrd, his wife, was born at the last-
