

"One piece contained one acre and a quarter, bounded northerly by the Grantor's land, easterly by ye Meadow Hill, southwardly by Thomas Bridgman's & Benj. Stebben's Home Lots, out of which a highway is reserved by the Grantor sufficient for him to pass and repass to his land beyond."

"Also another tract of land, lying under sd Meadow Hill being one half of sd Grantor's land there viz. the lower or southerly half; containing about six acres bounded northerly by the Grantor's land, eastwardly by Venturer's Field, so called, southerly by the whole side, or the Bushy Swamp, (so called) and westerly by the Meadow Hill."

"Also a piece of land in Young Railbow, bounded north by the river; eastwardly by the land of Samuel Lankton, and southerly by the highway on Young Rainbow Hill, lying in a triangle containing one and a half acres."

"Also a lot, in the Long Division outlands, being thirteen rods wide; bounded northerly by Samuel Wright's land; and southwardly by the lot which formerly belonged to Joseph Hawley Esq. deceased."

"Also all my right or proportion of land, as I am proprietor with others in that tract of land, known by the name of the Inward Commons lying at the eastwardly end of Long Division lots—and also in all other parts of the town except that on the south side of Manhan river and west of Westfield road.

Signed March 1st, 1732.

His
EBENEZER + ALVORD.
Mark.

Joseph Baker, father of Mrs. Ruth Alvord, was killed by the Indians Oct. 29, 1675. At the same time her brother Joseph Baker suffered the same fate. Mrs. Ruth Alvord's uncle, Thomas Holton, was killed by the Indians, March 14, 1676.

Mrs. Elizabeth Alvord, relict of Ebenezer Alvord, Dec. of Northampton, and Joseph Alvord the eldest son administered the estate, Feb. 13, 1738-9. She was guardian to her sons Ebenezer, above 14, and Thomas Alvord under 14 years of age, minors. Mrs. Wright, who was born in 1756 remembered Mrs. Ebenezer Alvord. She then lived with her daughter, Mary. Mary or Ruth kept a school for girls in the house.

11. JONATHAN ALVORD (Alexander), born Northampton, Mass., Apr. 6, 1669; died Northampton, Mass., Aug. 13, 1729; married Northampton, Mass., Jan. 12, 1693, Thankful Miller, daughter of William and Patience Miller. She was born Northampton, Mass., April 25, 1669; died Northampton, Mass., Mar. 30, 1738. Res. Northampton, Mass. Children: (All born at Northampton, Mass.)

44. Jonathan, b. Apr. 9, 1694; d. Northampton, Mar. 4, 1701.

45. John, b. June 28, 1701.

46. Jonathan, b. —; d. Northampton, Apr. 11, 1706.