

1565. Clara Irene, b. Herrick, Pa., Feb. 26, 1861; d. Dec. 1863.

George Seymour Alvord was a carpenter by trade. He resided chiefly at Prompton, Pa., though he lived in Susquehanna Co., Pa., at Clifford and Herrick for eighteen years. He served as justice of peace for several years, was a Democrat in politics, and a Universalist in religious belief, a man of jovial disposition, and fond of storytelling. He was a kind husband and father, and thoroughly honest and honorable in all his dealings.
