

the war for several years, he resided at North Adams, Mass. In 1869 he went to Minn. and resided at St. Cloud, Grove City, and St. Paul, following the occupation of steam engineer. He is now (1908) living at St. Paul, Minn.

1360. SUSAN AMELIA ALVORD (Nelson, Jehiel, Jehiel, Jonathan, Jonathan, Alexander), born Easthampton, Mass., June 1, 1847; died Atchison, Kans., July 25, 1888; married Omaha, Neb., Dec. 4, 1884, George Rodney Anderson of So. Deerfield, son of Charles Brigham and Tryphosa Butler (Clark) Anderson. He was born South Deerfield, Mass., June 28, 1850. Res. Atchison, Kans. Child:

a. Edith Sprague, b. Atchison, Kans., Dec. 4, 1887; res. Northampton, Mass., 1905.

George R. Anderson married again and lives at Northampton, Mass. He has a position in the freight office of the B. & M. Ry.

1361. FANNY JANE ALVORD (Nelson, Jehiel, Jehiel, Jonathan, Jonathan, Alexander) born Easthampton, Mass., Sept. 1, 1851; married 1st, Sept. 16, 1870, Edson D. Strong, son of Ebenezer N. and Marina A. (Parsons) Strong. She married 2nd, Northampton, Mass., Sept. 29, 1892, Andrew Jackson Noble, son of John A. and Fannie Worthington (Stall) Noble. Res. Florence, Mass. (1907). No children.

Edson D. Strong was a carpenter. Andrew J. Noble is a dyer.