

CONTENTS.

Introduction,	I-10
History of the Work — Wide Distribution of Family — Sources of Information — Different Records Examined — Correspondence with Descendants — Centers of Family Residence Visited — Records Preserved in Families — Tradition: Separation of the True from False — The True Often Corroborated by Contemporary Records — Important Clues to Lines of Descent thus Obtained — Instances Given — Errors in Records Generally Authentic — The name Goldthwaite — Various Spellings — Different Forms Used in the Family — Reasons for and against Use of Final e — Change from Original Form in Many Names — Goldthwaite Remains as Earliest Found — Varied Pronunciations — Its Age and Advantages as a Surname — Limits of its Home During First Century in New England — Names Successively Borne by First Home — Acknowledgments for Assistance — Illustrations — Contributions towards Publication.
The Goldthwaite Family in England,	11-34
Its Name a Proof of the Country and Particular Region of its Origin — Derivation and Meaning of thwaite — Significance of its Prefixes — Other Names of Like Termination — Are Names, First of Places, thence of Owner or Inhabitant — Such Places Once in Existence — In Many Cases Now Lost Sight of — Can Place Called Goldthwaite now be Found? — Search for it in English Records — Its Final Discovery — Name Preserved in that of Ancient Manor House — Hugo de Goldthwaite, 1347, Earliest of the Name Found — Significance of Prefix Gold — Station of the Family — Discoveries Corroborated by Other Authorities — Ancient Records of Goldthwaites — Some Connected with Fountains Abbey — History of Region about Ancient Home — Distinguished Persons Originating in that Region — Appearance at Present Day — Abstracts of Ancient Family Wills — Graveyard Inscriptions.
Thomas Goldthwaite of Salem and his Descendants,	37-344
Additions and Corrections,	345
Appendix,	351-355
1. Goldthwaite Record Left by John Goldthwaite of Danvers, born 1771.
2. Account of the Boston Family Given by Miss Hannah Goldthwaite Gowen, born 1774.
Index I, Christian Names of Goldthwaites,	357
Index II, Other Names than Goldthwaite,	370