

WILL OF THOMAS KINGMAN.

In the name and Fear of God, Amen.

I Thomas Kingman Sen'r, of Weymouth in the County of Suffolk, in her Maj'tys Provinces of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, being old and not knowing how soon it may please the Almighty in his all wise Providence to call me out of this World, And being now of a sound and disposing mind, Do firstly and chiefly give and Bequeath my Soul into the hands of its Almighty maker hoping for its Salvation through the Merits and Mediation of Jesus Christ alone, And for the setting of my house in order, and better Settlement of that Temporal Estate that God hath Given me, Do Dispose of it in manner following: Ordaining, making and appointing this to be my last Will & Testament, and do hereby make void & null all former Wills whatsoever by me made or ordained to be made.

Imprimis. After my just Debts, and Funeral Expenses are paid, I Give & Bequeath unto my well Beloved Wife, Rececca Kingman the use Benefit & improvement of all my Homestead where I now Dwell containing, Thirty Acres of Land, consisting of orchard, broke up Land, and Pasture, with all the Housing & Building, thereon. Also Three Acres of meadow lying in "Kingmans Neck" commonly so called in Weymouth, during her natural Life. And if it should so happen that my said Wife should Remove out of the House and Quit the State, That then my Will is That my son Henry who is to Enjoy the Part of my Estate after my Wifes Decease Shall pay to my Said Wife Twenty Pounds in or as money, to be at her own Disposal as she shall see cause.

Item. I Give and Bequeath unto my eldest son Thomas Kingman Twenty Acres of Land where his house stands which I bought of the Widow Mary Rane lying in Weymouth, Also I Give to my son Thomas Two acres of Land on the West Side of the highway where his Barn stands; also Two acres of salt marsh Lying in Brantry, also one Acre of Upland and meadow lying adjoining to the Three Acres before mentioned in "Kingman's Neck" to him and his Heirs.

Item. I Give and Bequeath unto my son John Kingman and his Heirs Fifty acres of Land with the Buildings thereon Lying in the upper Division in Weymouthe which I bought of Thomas Drake & Ephraim Burle and Zachariah Bicknell &c. And also two Acres of Salt mairsh lying in Brautrey adjoining to the other two acres which I Gave to my son Thomas in Brantray to him and his Heirs.

Item. I Give and Bequeath to my son Henry Kingman all that my Homestead before mentioned containing Thirty Acres or thereabouts, consisting of orchard, broke up Land and Pasture with all the Housing and Building thereon, Also I Give to my son Henry Three Acres of Meadow lying in "Kingman's Neck" commonly so called, in Weymouth, all which I Give to my son Henry after my said wifes Decease or her removal out of the House; always Provided, and my Will is That my Son Henry Kingman shall keep and maintain his Brother William Kingman, four years after my Decease upon his own proper cost and charge if he should continue so long. This I Give to my son Henry and his Heirs.

Item. I Give and Bequeath unto my three daughters Hannah, Lydia and Sarah, That Pasture in Weymouth lying between Colonel Hunt's Land
