BORN at Poultney, Vt., May 5, 1822, and educated by her grandfather Peter Scribner, at Poultney Academy. Hon. Horace Greeley attended that academy at the same time. She married Nathan Shaw, who was born in Whitehall, Washington County, N. Y., Aug. 27, 1817, and educated at Fort Edward, N. Y. He possessed great energy and a high character, being held in the esteem of his townsmen, who considered his word a bond meriting all confidence. He was well informed and popular, but could not spare time from his extensive business to engage in politics. The people of their own accord elected him a justice for his town of Elbridge, but he refused to serve, and another gentleman was appointed to fill the vacancy. But his judgment was accurate and reliable. His father, Benjamin Shaw, was a soldier of the war of 1812 at 17 years of age. Nathan died Nov. 5, 1875, aged 57, having been an invalid for 20 years.
