

BUCKMINSTER.

(See page 751.)

LUCY^o WILLIAMS (Elizabeth^a Cotton, Dorothy^o Brattle street, Anne^o Dudley, Gov. Thomas^o) married Rev. Joseph Buckminster, who was born March 1, 1719-20, grad. H. C. 1739, and settled at Rutland, 1742. Seven of his children are named on page 751-2. The other children were:

viii. WM. STODDARD, b. June 6, and d. Oct. 5, 1761.

ix. ISABELL, b. Oct. 25, 1764.

Their sister Sarah was born 1747, not "1717." Their brother, Rev. Joseph Stevens Buckminster, pastor of Brattle street church, Boston, was admitted to Harvard University in 1797, aged 13, one year in advance. He grad. 1800, and became an assistant at Exeter Academy; studied theology, and was ordained and settled over the Brattle street church, Jan. 30th, 1805. In 1811 he was appointed Lecturer at Harvard University, upon the Dexter foundation. He grew more liberal in his doctrinal views as time advanced. "Love of study was the passion of his soul," says his sister, Eliza Buckminster Lee, in her sketch of his life. He was considered pre-eminent in science at the age of 23 years. His death occurred June 9, 1812, at the age of 28. He had been deeply engaged in preparing biblical lectures for Harvard. Epilepsy was his chronic disorder.

MRS. CORNELIA (COLLINS) HUSSEY.

Cornelia Collins Hussey, philanthropist, was born in New York, in 1827. Her maiden name was Collins. Her parents were Stacy Budd and Mary Dudley Collins. Her mother was daughter of Edward and Mary Eves Dudley of Roscrea, Ireland. She is a member of the Society of Friends, to which sect her family have belonged for several generations. In early years she was in sympathy with the anti-slavery movement, and before reaching her majority became a manager of the Colored Orphan Asylum in her native city. In 1851, Miss Collins became the wife of William H. Hussey, of New Bedford, a man of similar tendencies with herself. About that time she made the acquaintance of Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, who had just settled in medical practice in New York. Dr. Blackwell became Mrs. Hussey's medical adviser, and some years afterwards, in co-operation with her and several other ladies and gentlemen, among whom was the late Cyrus W. Field, she formed a body of trustees for the New York Infirmary for Women and children. The purpose of that society was to give poor women medical treatment at the hands of
