

the governor and council) March 28, 1778, and served until his decease, Sept. 23, 1789. Presidential elector for Maryland, Jan. 13, 1789, and voted for George Washington as President of United States.

(See History of Dudley Family, page 892.) Mr. Walter Chandler says there is a portrait of Hon. John Rogers above mentioned, his ancestor.

DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT AND MARY STOKES DUDLEY.

A gentleman of London, who is a grandson of Robert Dudley of Clonmel (see pedigree, pp. 152-3, and sketch of his wife Mary (Stokes) Dudley, page 222), writes me as follows: She was born at Bristol, Eng., 8th of 6th Month, 1750, being a dau. of Joseph and Mary Stokes of Bristol. She died at Packham, aged 74.

Robert Dudley was three times married: 1st, to Elizabeth Grubb of Clonmel, Ireland; 2d, to Hannah Jessop of Woodbridge, Suffolk, Eng., Nov. 8, 1770; 3d, to Mary Stokes of Frenchay, near Bristol, Eng., July 7, 1777.

By the previous marriages Robert Dudley had only three sons. Jonathan, Robert and Joseph. Jonathan left a dau., but no son. Robert left a son, who d. unm. Joseph left no issue. By his marriage with Mary Stokes, Robt. Dudley left many children, viz.:

- i. ELIZABETH, d. unm.
- ii. CHARLES STOKES,* m. Sarah Haycock, dau. of Edward, and they had a large family. Their eldest son Robert m. Amy Hunt, and they have sons, 1, Guilford; 2, Robert Ambrose.
- iii. WILLIAM, married. iv. MARY, d. unm.
- v. HANNAH, d. unm. vi. THOMAS, d. unm.
- vii. CHARLOTTE, d. unm.
- viii. GEORGE, married Sarah Carr, and has four children, viz.: 1, Ellen Maria, d. young; 2, Jubet DeL., m. Geo. Bartlett, s. p.; 3, Mary E. S., m. Wm. H. Leatherby. This lady has written to me from Ascot, Berks, Eng.

(See pedigree at p. 152.)

ELEAZER DUDLEY, b. 1738, m. Aune Hort. Their son. Edward Dudley, b. 1769; m. Mary Eves. 1790, and had seven children, viz.:

- i. ANNE, b. 1792, d. young.

*Charles Stokes Dudley was a clergyman. A portrait and sketch of him is inserted in this number. His son Robert, Esq., has kindly sent this account from London, where he resides. He is the representative of his branch of the Dudleys of Ireland.