

was a resident there in 1790. He was of Monkton, Vt., in 1800. Samuel Haight in 1800 conveyed land in Malone, N. Y., to John Alvord of New Haven, Vt. The last years of his life were spent at Chateaugay Woods, N. Y., with his son Woolcott. He received 180 acres of land, located by the Government in the state of Ohio. About the year 1826 his son John went to view the property, and found an individual in possession of the estate, who had purchased it of a third person and who would not give it up without litigation. Although it was very valuable and it was believed that the occupant's title was not good, yet nothing was obtained from it.
