

Mary Maria Butler, daughter of David and Hannah (Huffman) Butler. She was born Cobleskill, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1809; died Norwalk, O., Sept. 7, 1881. Res. Norwalk, O. Children:

- 2074. Matilda, b. Cobleskill, N. Y., July 6, 1830.
- 2075. Rachel, b. Cobleskill, N. Y., Aug. 11, 1831.
- 2076. Rosanah, b. Cobleskill, N. Y., Mar. 17, 1833.
- 2077. David Butler, b. prob. Frankfort, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1835.
- 2078. Jane, b. prob. Frankfort, N. Y., May 14, 1837.
- 2079. Aaron Moses, b. Frankfort, N. Y., Jan. 31, 1841.

Jasper Alvord emigrated from New York State to Ohio in 1853. He was a moulder by trade and was engaged in the construction of furnaces. He was killed while working upon a furnace, the roof falling upon him.

1195. JOSEPH MARSHALL ALVORD (Medad, Seth, Joseph, Joseph, Ebenezer, Alexander), born Frankfort, N. Y., May 20, 1815; died Frankfort, N. Y., Feb. 7, 1876; married Frankfort, N. Y., Jan. 21, 1835, Deziere Hakes, daughter of John and Catherine (Seckner) Hakes. She was born Little Falls, N. Y., Sept. 22, 1814; died Frankfort, N. Y., May 18, 1892. Res. Frankfort Hill, N. Y. Children:

- 2080. John Marshall, b. Frankfort, N. Y., Oct. 11, 1835.
- 2081. Jeanette, b. Frankfort, N. Y., Mar. 30, 1838.
- 2082. Maryette, b. Frankfort, N. Y., Mar. 30, 1838.

Joseph Marshall Alvord was of a quiet and unassuming nature. His daily life was a rebuke to ungodliness and thoughtlessness. A precept which he instilled into the minds of his children was to speak ill of no one. Although his own life seemed almost faultless, he had unbounded charity for the faults of others. Both he and his wife were members of the Methodist Church. By occupation he was a farmer.

John Hakes, Mrs. Alvord's father, was a soldier in the War of 1812.

1198. AMOS ALVORD (Medad, Seth, Joseph, Joseph, Ebenezer, Alexander), born Frankfort, N. Y., 1821; died Pike, Fulton Co., O., June 10, 1884; married 1st, Mary Folts. She died Frankfort, N. Y. He married 2nd, Martha Heyer. Res. Frankfort and Pike, Fulton Co., O. Children:

- 2083. Eugene.
- 2084. Scott.

Amos Alvord was unable to read or write. His sons were in-