

at Manchester Green, Conn., where he continued with good success until his death.

1841. JOHN AUSTIN ALVORD (Elijah Anson, Martin, Saul, Saul, John, Thomas Alexander), born Bolton, Conn., Dec. 3, 1859; married Pomfret, Conn., Apr. 16, 1889, Ada Louise Clark, daughter of Abiel Lafayette and Harriet (May) Clark. She was born Pomfret, Conn., Jan. 26, 1861. Res. Manchester Green, Conn., 1908. Child:

2710. Harold Clark, b. Manchester Green, Conn., Feb. 14, 1892; clerk in bank at South Manchester, Conn., 1908.

John Austin Alvord began his business career in a grocery store at Bolton, Conn., in partnership with W. B. Williams. After conducting this business several years, he sold out and in 1884 with his cousin, Edwin D. Alvord, bought the grocery store at Manchester Green, Conn. The following year Joseph C. Alvord bought out the interest of Edwin D. Alvord, and the brothers ran the business until Joseph's death. Since that time Mr. Alvord has been sole owner and proprietor, and the business has greatly increased under his management. He is also post master.

1843. WILLIAM ELIJAH ALVORD (Elijah Anson, Martin, Saul, Saul, John, Thomas, Alexander), born Dalton, Conn., Dec. 16, 1863; married Bolton, Conn., June 19, 1895, Elulia Josephine Martin, daughter of Joel Wales and Josephine (Loomis) Martin. She was born Bolton, Conn., Sep. 15, 1867. Res. Manchester Green, Conn., 1908. Child:

2711. Martin Earl, b. Manchester Green, Conn., Nov. 9, 1901.

William Elijah Alvord succeeded his brother Joseph C., in the management of the home farm at Bolton, Conn., which he successfully conducted until his marriage. Since that time he has been engaged in the manufacture of soap, having his factory at Bolton Depot and his residence at Manchester Green, Conn. Mr. Alvord has always taken an active part in politics and town affairs. While a resident of Bolton he was selectman of the town and represented the town of Bolton in the Conn. legislature for the session, 1895. Since living in Manchester he has for several years been a member of the board of selectmen.

1845. SAMUEL MORGAN ALVORD (Elijah Anson, Martin, Saul, Saul, John, Thomas, Alexander), born Bolton, Conn., Nov. 19, 1869; married Pennington, N. J., Dec. 27, 1900, Mary Ann