

WILLIAM THAW, THE AMERICAN AVIATOR, WHO IS FIGHTING FOR FRANCE.—He is here shown soon after being wounded in the arm in a battle with German battle planes over Verdun. He has been decorated by the French War Ministry for his daring and brilliant services.

© Underwood & Underwood.

CREW OF THE WRECKED ZEPPELIN SWIMMING FOR THEIR LIVES.—Seven of the crew of the Zepplin L-7 were saved by the British submarine which sank the gas bag after it had been brought down by two cruisers. The German air sailors are here seen swimming toward the submarine.

© Medem Photo Service.

DESTRUCTION
The L-7 was brought down by two British cruisers submarine. Seven of her crew were rescued by the on fire and sinking.

Men and Scenes in the War Panorama of Which All Europe Is the Stage.

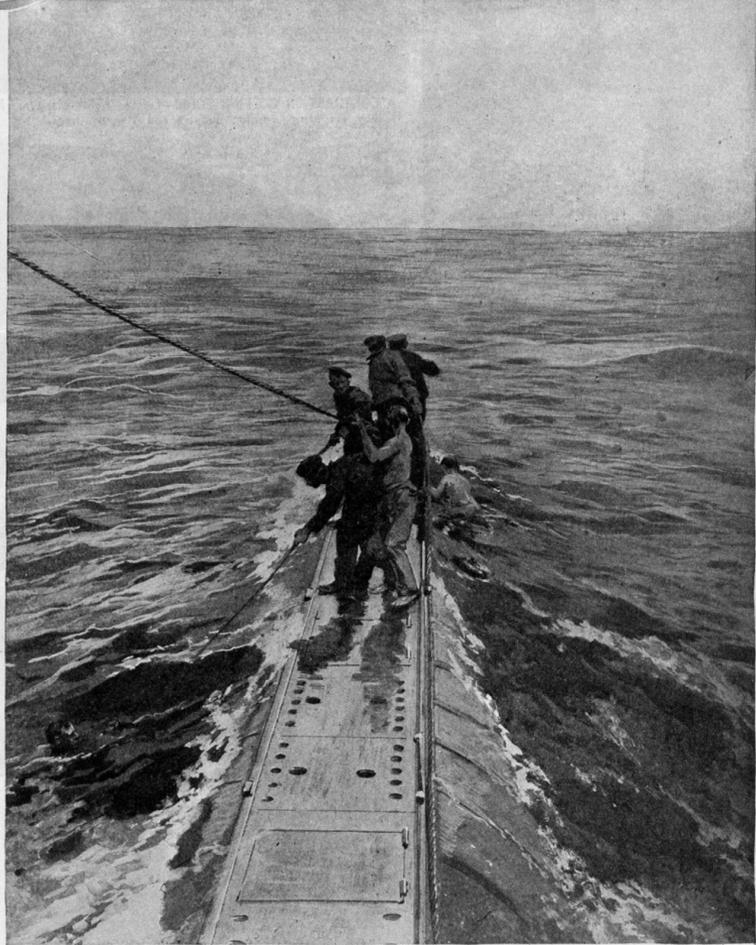

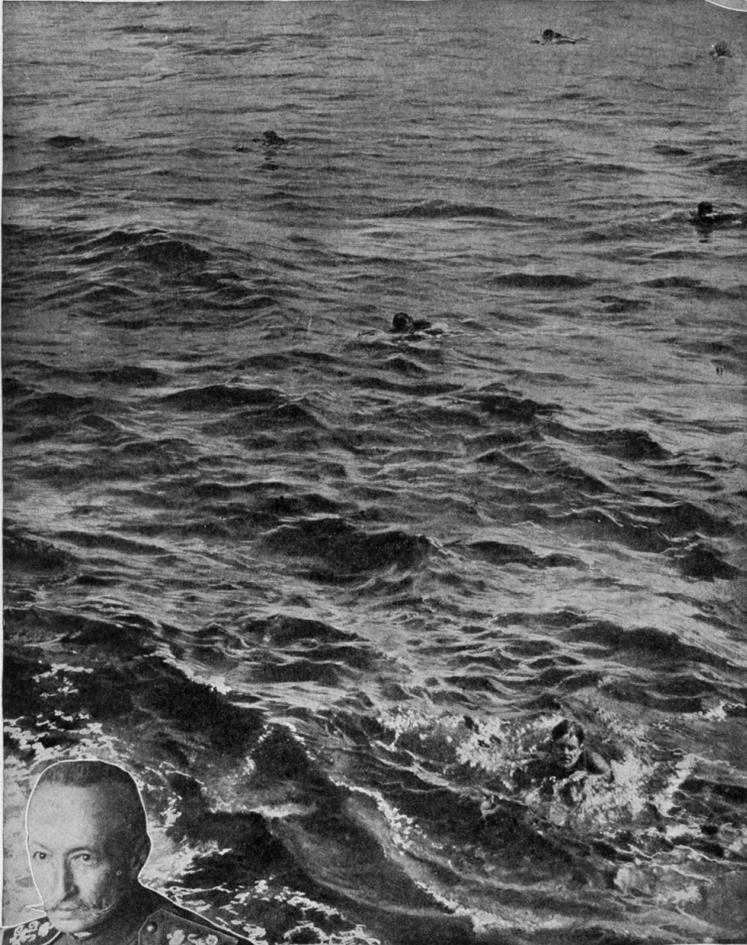

OF THE L-7.
off the German Coast and then torpedoed by a submarine. The photograph shows the giant gas bag

© Medem Photo Service.

KIFFEN ROCKWELL, AN AMERICAN AVIATOR WHO HAS DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF AT VERDUN.—In one engagement this daring air fighter brought down two Fokkers. He was wounded in the face, neck and shoulders. He was decorated for his bravery.

© International Film Service.

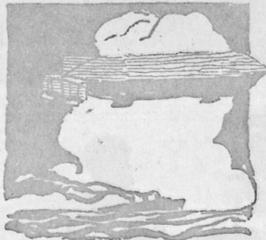

BRITISH SUBMARINE SAILORS RESCUING THEIR FOES.—When the L-7 began sinking such of her crew as were able to swim made for the British E-boat which had completed the destruction of the airship. The British tars are here seen hauling German airmen aboard the submarine.

© Medem Photo Service.

GENERAL BRUSILOV, DIRECTOR OF THE GREAT RUSSIAN DRIVE IN GALICIA.—It is estimated that 300,000 Austrian and German soldiers have been made prisoners or put out of action in the Russian offensive which is heralded by some military experts as the beginning of a concerted effort by the Allies to gain a decisive victory. A similar offensive is expected to start soon along the French and English lines.

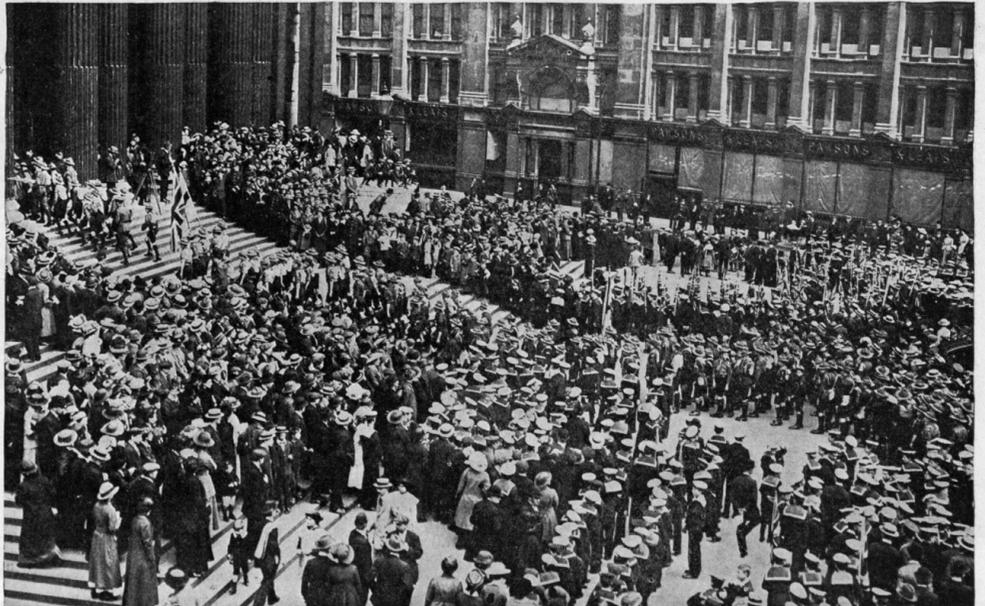

© Underwood & Underwood.

FUNERAL OF GENERAL GALLIENI

All Paris did honor to the famous General who was called the Saviour of Paris at the beginning of the war. He it was who rushed troops from Paris to stem the German tide at the Ourcq, when Paris was in deadly peril. The funeral cortege is here shown passing through the Esplanade of the Invalids.

© Medem Photo Service.

LONDON CELEBRATES EMPIRE DAY

Part of the procession entering St. Paul's Cathedral, where impressive services were held and shared in by military and civic representatives of all the colonies.

© International Film Service.