

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1861.

We understand that the President of the United States has vetoed the LEAKAGE BILL...

An official letter to the Secretary of State of the 1st of 2nd April has been received from our Consul at Gibraltar...

Additional information is received from Gibraltar of the 1st of 2nd April...

Extract of a letter from the American Consul at Algiers, dated 24th January 1861.

Upon my arrival in this country in 1798, some American and English country ships, because they had no cargo on board...

I think it proper therefore, to state to you, for the information of all Americans residing in this country...

To provide the relief against being detained at Mocha and striking the prohibitory or embargo certificate...

Your obedient and very humble servant. SAMUEL SNOW, Secretary of State of the United States of America.

It was with some difficulty I obtained a glimpse of the Neptune in three weeks after its arrival...

During the last session of the Legislature of New-York, an act of incorporation was granted to the stockholders of the FARMERS BANK.

By this act, an association of citizens incorporated under the above name, are authorized to receive subscriptions for 50,000 shares...

It is probable, however, from the fitness of the soil, and from the situation of the banks in the country...

As the leading interests of the United States are agricultural, and as the interests will rather gain than lose ground...

It is notorious that such is rapidly the present state of our farmers. By all modern inducements they can be cradled to this condition...

On the 3d inst. came before the House of Representatives of Connecticut the report of a Joint Committee of both Houses...

From the census just taken, Kentucky appears to contain 240,000 inhabitants. Should the present ratio of representation continue...

From the fine census, it appears that did not exceed, and probably had not been accounted to. The Highlanders received the French cavalry on their bayonets...

On the 5th inst. the National Brig Semmel, J. H. Jones commander, arrived at Baltimore.

Don J. de la Puente de Vian, has notified the public of the resignation of his title of the office of Consul-General of his Catholic Majesty to the United States.

Extract of a letter from Cadix to a merchant in Baltimore, dated April 15, 1861.

A letter to a respectable commercial house in Philadelphia, dated Bordeaux, the 28th April, has the following postscript: 'This day's pill from Marfilles en Barcelona, brings account that the King of Algeria, has DECLARED WAR against the United States.'

DIED.—At Lancaster on the 4th inst. FREDERICK AUGUSTUS MURKENSBERG Receiver-General of the Land-Office.

NASHVILLE, April 29. We are informed by a gentleman of respectability from the Natchez, that a man by the name of...

Late Foreign Intelligence.

POSTON, June 3. Yesterday the schooner Isis, Capt. Griffin arrived at Biscayne Road, on 9th March...

ENGLISH ACCOUNT OF ROYALTY AFFAIRS. GERMANY, April 17, 1861. Yesterday arrived from London, in 24 days, his majesty's hired armed brig Louisa...

The British army, under Sir Ralph Abercromby, arrived in Aboukir Bay on the 21st of March; but did not attempt to disembark...

Our loss in killed and wounded this day is estimated to amount to 400 or 500 men and the enemy's about the same. Amongst the corps which made this first landing were the guards 29th, 42d, 90th, and 92d regiments.

On the 14th the attack commenced upon the camp of Aboukir, and on the 18th the garrison surrendered to the British forces...

When the Louisa left Egypt, the British privateer ship was pulled within two miles of Alexandria and the French Schooner La Favorite was about 6000 strong...

Our gallant army is only waiting for the heavy artillery to attack the enemy's height near Alexandria...

Received by the Aboukir, arrived at Philadelphia, on the 24th of April 24, and by the Argos arrived at Newport, with Boarding Parties to the 20th of April.

LONDON, April 24. The Paris papers of the 16th inst. which have been the secret articles of the treaty of peace between France and Naples...

The Paris papers of the 16th inst. which have been the secret articles of the treaty of peace between France and Naples, by informing us of the march of different divisions of French troops...

The British army, under Sir Ralph Abercromby, arrived in Aboukir Bay on the 21st of March; but did not attempt to disembark...

Our loss in killed and wounded this day is estimated to amount to 400 or 500 men and the enemy's about the same. Amongst the corps which made this first landing were the guards 29th, 42d, 90th, and 92d regiments.

On the 14th the attack commenced upon the camp of Aboukir, and on the 18th the garrison surrendered to the British forces...

When the Louisa left Egypt, the British privateer ship was pulled within two miles of Alexandria and the French Schooner La Favorite was about 6000 strong...

Our loss in killed and wounded this day is estimated to amount to 400 or 500 men and the enemy's about the same. Amongst the corps which made this first landing were the guards 29th, 42d, 90th, and 92d regiments.

On the 14th the attack commenced upon the camp of Aboukir, and on the 18th the garrison surrendered to the British forces...

When the Louisa left Egypt, the British privateer ship was pulled within two miles of Alexandria and the French Schooner La Favorite was about 6000 strong...