

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH MADE AT THE INSTANT OF A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN A PAINT FACTORY IN PEARL STREET WHICH TORE THE ROOF FROM THE BUILDING AND PUT THE FIREMEN TO FLIGHT.
(Photo by International News Service.)

DR. CHARLES EASTMAN, A FULL-BLOODED SIOUX INDIAN IN NATIVE COSTUME, on the Shores of Greenwood Lake, Addressing the New "Inkowa" Campfire Club of Women and Girls, Organized by Miss Anne Morgan.

MISS VIRGINIA LONEY, A LUSITANIA SURVIVOR, RETURNS. Miss Loney, Sixteen Years Old, Whose Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. Loney, Were Lost on the Lusitania, Took an Oar on One of the Lifeboats When a Sailor Collapsed, and Rowed Until Rescued.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

FIREMEN AT THE FIREMEN'S PARADE GIVING AN EXHIBITION OF JUMPING INTO A LIFE NET FROM A BURNING BUILDING.

PUPILS OF THE KNOX SCHOOL, TARRYTOWN, GIVING AN OPEN AIR PRESENTATION OF THE "PERSIAN PRINCESS" AT THE COMMENCEMENT.
(Photo by Thompson Photo Co.)