

STEEPLE-JACK LOUIS BINGHAM SETTING FREE THE STARS AND STRIPES CAUGHT ABOUT THE FLAGSTAFF STANDING OUT FROM THE TWENTY-FIRST STORY OF THE MUNICIPAL BUILDING, NEARLY 300 FEET ABOVE THE SIDEWALK.

(Photo © International Film Service.)

A FRENCH FATHER AND MOTHER AND THEIR FIFTEEN CHILDREN.

The Parents, Shown in the Insert, Are M. and Mme. Pierre Debost of the Town of Pierrefitte, Near Lourdes. Under the French Law to Encourage Large Families M. Debost Is Exempt from Military Service. From a Recent Photograph Taken at the Debost Home.

MISS ELIZABETH SHELLEY AND LITTLE BOGOLJUD CHAPTCHANINE,

A Little Serbian Orphan Not Yet Four, Arriving on the American Liner Finland. Miss Shelley, a war nurse, on duty in the town of Shabats, found the little fellow near where his mother and many other mothers like her lay dead, and was so impressed by him that she at length decided to adopt him, and is bringing him here for an American education.

(Photo from American Press Association.)

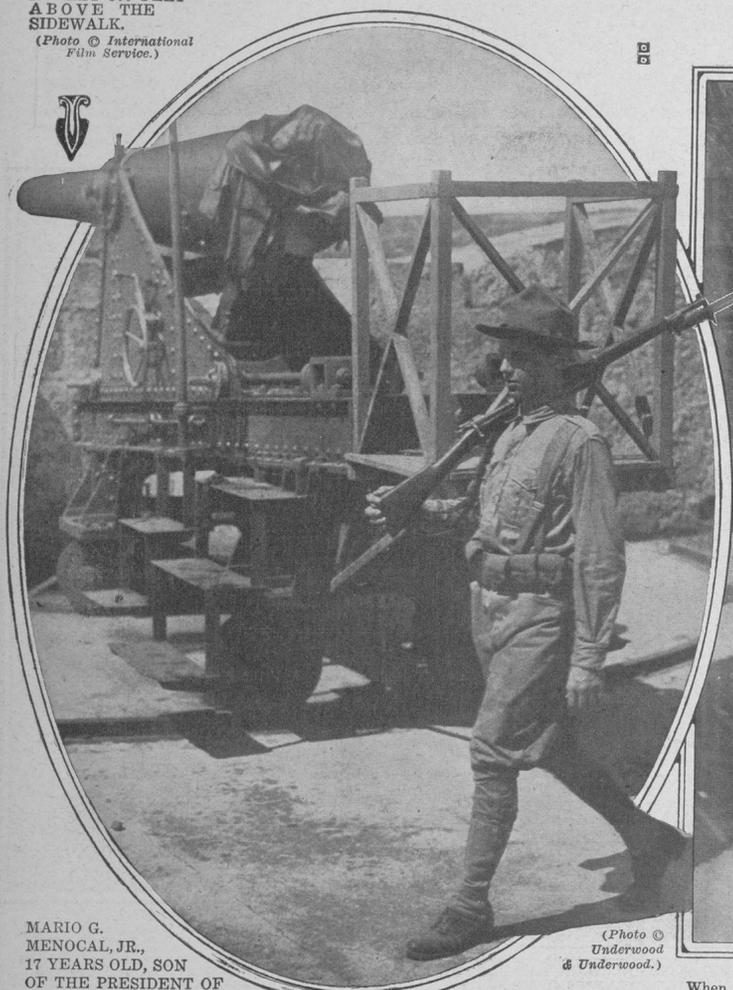

MISS MANA ZUCCA, Who Is to Give at Aeolian Hall This Week a Recital of Her Own Compositions.

(Photo from Lillian George Studio.)

MRS. FREDERICK FUNSTON, Widow of General Funston, and Their Two Little Girls, Betty and Barbara. From a recent photograph taken in the Funston home in San Francisco.

(Photo from Press Illustrating Company.)

MARIO G. MENOCA, JR., 17 YEARS OLD, SON OF THE PRESIDENT OF CUBA, DOING GUARD DUTY AT A FORT NEAR HAVANA DURING THE RECENT OUTBREAK.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

A CORNER OF THE PARKING PLACE FOR BABY CARRIAGES AT THE CITY HALL, NEWARK. When, on Feb. 28, Nearly a Thousand Persons, Mostly Mothers and Children, Marched Through a Snowstorm to Call Upon and Implore Mayor Raymond to Do Everything in His Power to Have Prices of Food Reduced.

(Photo © International Film Service.)