

THE TWENTY-THIRD REGIMENT, N. G. N. Y., PASSING THE REVIEWING STAND DURING THE GALA RECRUITING DEMONSTRATION IN PROSPECT PARK, BROOKLYN, A WEEK AGO.
(Times Photo Service.)

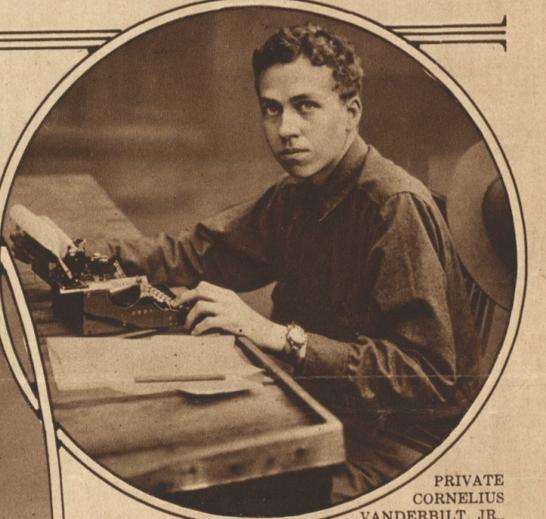

MRS. WILLIAM ANSON, Formerly Miss Louise Van Wagenen. Mr. Anson, Now a Texas Ranch Owner, is the Second Son of the Second Earl of Lichfield, and a Brother of the Third Earl.
(White Studio.)

Private Helen Fisler, Of the Women's Mounted Emergency Corps, Giving at the Brooklyn Recruiting Rally a Demonstration of Conveying from the Field a Wounded Soldier, to Whom She Has Administered "First Aid" and Lifted to Her Horse.
(© American Press Association.)

THE VARUNA, THE NEW CLASS 38-FOOTER, OWNED BY COMMODORE FORD OF THE LARCHMONT YACHT CLUB, AND CARRYING THE NEW MARCONI RIG, WINNING IN THE FIRST RACE OF THE SEASON.
(Edwin Levick.)

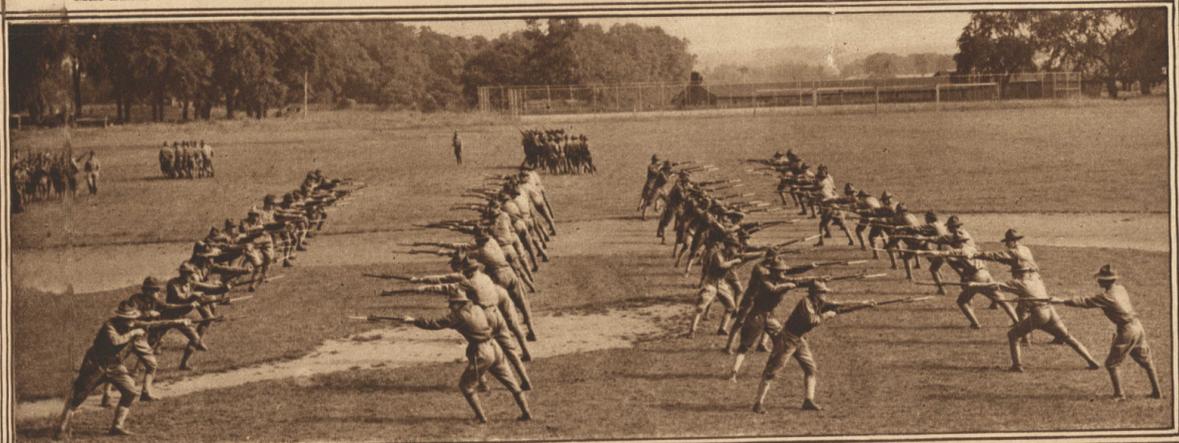

PRIVATE CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, JR., Nineteen Years Old Son of Colonel Cornelius Vanderbilt of the Twenty-Second Regiment, Who Has Enlisted as a Private in the National Guard, N. Y., Assigned to a Typewriting Job at the Seventh Regiment Armory.
(© International Film Service.)

SCENE IN THE WARD CONDUCTED BY MISS RUTH LANDON, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. EDWARD H. LANDON OF NEW YORK, IN THE AMERICAN WAR HOSPITAL AT NEUILLY, FRANCE.
Miss Landon Can Be Seen in the Back Row with Arm Linked in that of a Wounded French Soldier.

THE NEW 38-FOOTER NIMBUS, SAILED BY "EDDIE" FISH, SECOND IN THE RACE WITH THE MARCONI RIGGED VARUNA OFF LARCHMONT, CROSSING THE FINISH LINE ONE AND THREE-QUARTER SECONDS BEHIND THE WINNER IN A TWENTY-TWO MILE SPIN.
(Edwin Levick.)

PRESENT AND FORMER STUDENTS OF PRINCETON, MEMBERS OF THE MILITARY CAMP AT PRINCETON, ARE DRILLED IN BAYONET CHARGES.
(Paul Thompson.)