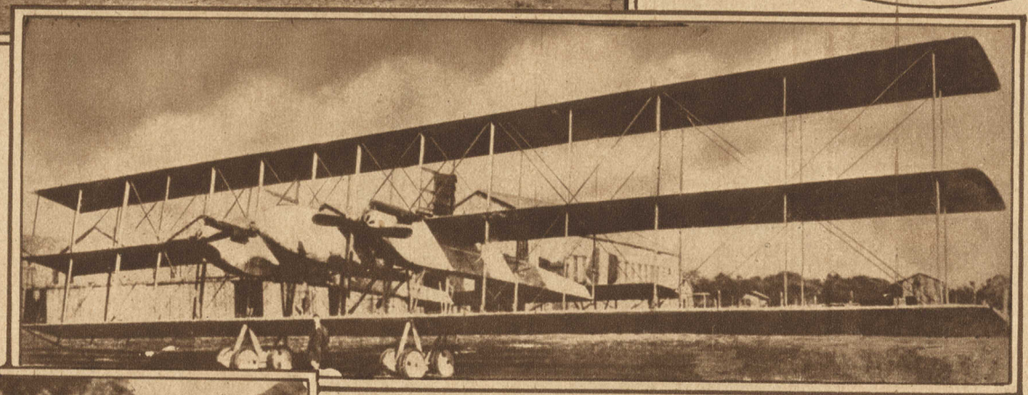
A NEW BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF THE CITY OF RHEIMS AND THE CATHEDRAL, TAKEN FROM AN AIRPLANE, SHOWING THE DAMAGE TO THE ROOF OF THE CATHEDRAL, THE RUINED FOUNDATIONS OF THE HOUSE OF CARDINAL LUCON, ARCHBISHOP OF RHEIMS, AND HUNDREDS OF HOUSES WHICH ARE BUT A SHELL OF WALLS.
No People Are to be Seen in the Streets as Practically the Entire Population of 5,000 Remaining Live in Wine Cellars.

(© Kadel & Herbert.)

GROUP OF AMERICAN STUDENTS OF AVIATION NOW AT THE BLERIOT MILITARY FLYING SCHOOL AT AVORD, FRANCE.
Dr. Edmund Gros, Head of the School, Is Standing Fifth from the Right.

ALMA GLUCK, the Soprano, at Work in Her War Garden at Her Summer Home, Fishers Island, New York.

(Bain News Service.)

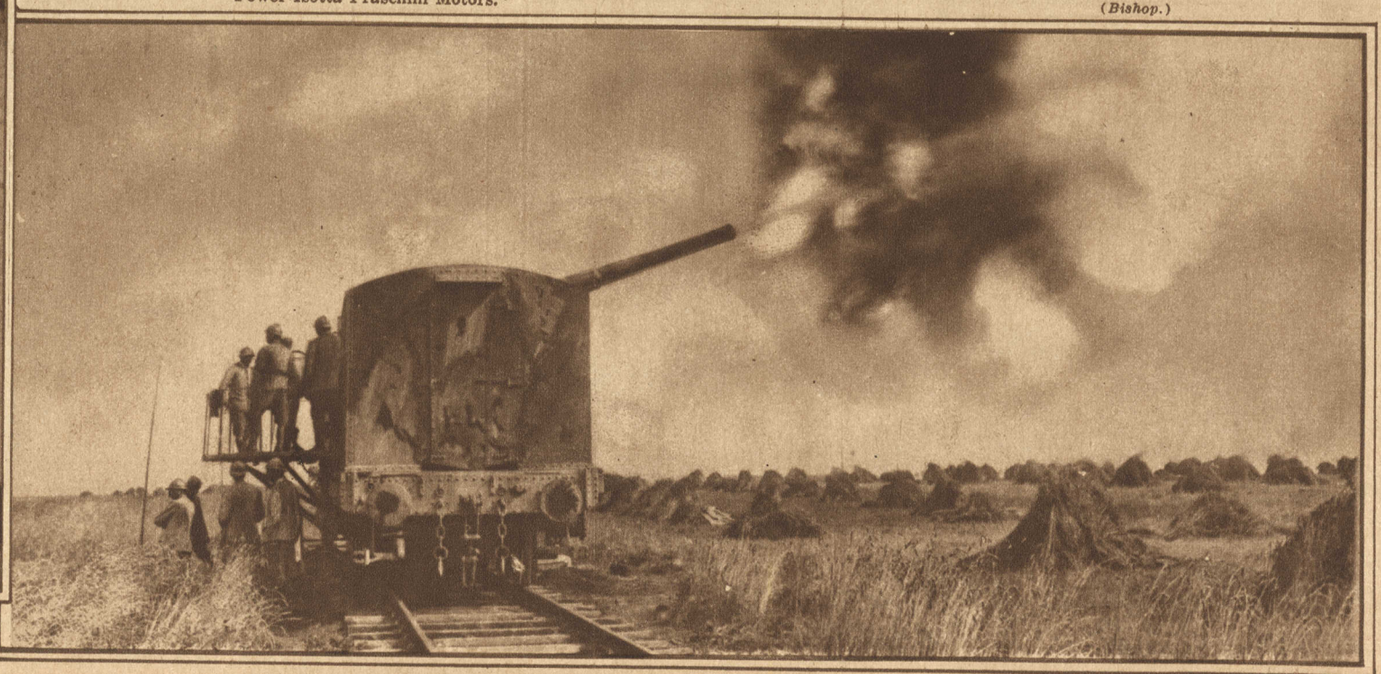


THE NEW CAPRONI TRIPLANE, REPRESENTING THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS OF AIRPLANE MANUFACTURE IN ITALY, AND EXTENSIVELY USED IN CLIMBING THE ALPINE HEIGHTS FOR RAIDS ON THE AUSTRIAN LINES.
It Has a 900-Horse Power Traction Force, Developed by Three 300-Horse Power Isotta Fraschini Motors.

LAURA WALKER,
Who Has Succeeded Mary Nash as Marcelle in "The Man Who Came Back," at the Playhouse.
(Bishop.)

MARSHAL JOFFRE IN EARNEST CONVERSATION WITH GENERAL PERSHING, AMERICAN COMMANDER IN FRANCE, BETWEEN WHOM, PARIS DISPATCHES REPORT, A STRONG FRIENDSHIP HAS GROWN UP.
(© Kadel & Herbert.)

GENERAL ALEXEI A. BRUSILOFF,
NEW COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE RUSSIAN ARMIES.



ANOTHER REAPER APPEARS UPON THIS HARVEST FIELD BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE.
(Pictorial Press.)