HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The BELLECLAIRE'S reputation has been won and is sustained because it is conducted exactly as any well managed private home is.

It is now going through the process of complete renovation—painters, decorators, carpenters, plasterers having been at work steadily for six weeks, and they are still continuing their work.

It is not an easy task to keep 300 rooms in first class order all of the time, but it is a task we undertake often and gladly because of the comfort and satisfaction which our guests derive from a neat, orderly, homelike atmosphere. That is full compensation for our efforts.

We are now ready to show suites to families who want the comforts of a home with none of the bother to themselves of home management—no marketing to do; no worry as to what shall be ordered for the meals of the day or week; no worry about servants—nothing to think of except to enjoy a home.

Yet there is just as much privacy as in a private home. You have your meals when you want them, and the menu provides everything you can possibly want. The food is the best to be had, well cooked and well served—the rooms are kept in fine order.

And you get all of this at a price no greater, if as great, as the cost of maintaining a private home.

One family came here from a large uptown apartment house not long ago. Their actual saving, in living at the BELLECLAIRE,—where they say they get more comfort—is $45 a week.

We haven't a great number of suites to lease, but they are all desirable and we want them to be occupied by desirable people—the only kind entertained at the BELLECLAIRE.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
