

John Purroy Mitchel, New York's Fighting Mayor, "says something" at the Fourth of July exercises in City Hall Park. Intern Film Serv.

Our new envoy from Russia, Ambassador Bakhmetieff, reviews the Russian sailors lined up at the Battery on his arrival in New York. The ambassador is on the extreme right. Paul Thompson.

David Bispham's splendid barytone re-sounds throughout City Hall Park on July 4th in "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Central News

Sarah Bernhardt, the "immortal," French actress, leaves her convalescent bed to "do her bit" at the Independence Day celebration in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. Paul Thompson.

Russia's youthful Minister of War, A. F. Kerensky, who planned the recent offensive in Galicia, and who himself went to the trenches to inspire his men. Underwood & Underwood

Ambassador Elkus returns from Turkey and waves the American flag in greeting to the Mayor's reception committee at City Hall. C. Curtis.

Miss Olwen Lloyd George, daughter of England's Premier, was married last month to Captain Carey Evans in London. Captain Evans and his bride are in the centre of the picture. Lloyd George is on the extreme left and Mrs. Lloyd George on the extreme right. Underwood & Underwood.

George J. Gould, Jr., and his bride, formerly Miss Laura M. Carter. Each of the newlyweds is twenty-one. Dame Rumor has it that the marriage was inspired by that of George's elder brother, Kingdon, three days before. Intern Film Serv.

Above—Baron Tadakichi Kato, head of the Japanese Navy, which may soon be in active co-operation with our fleet, policing the Pacific. Press Illus. Serv.

On the right—Admiral Albert Gleaves, who was in charge of the U. S. Navy convoy that so successfully protected our first overseas contingent. Bain News Serv.

Samuel Gompers snapped watching firemen at City College Stadium. He and Col. Roosevelt came near blows in Carnegie Hall the other night in a heated discussion over the East St. Louis race riots. Press Illus. Serv.

On the left—Miss Elizabeth Sands, one of Newport's many expert motorists. Underwood & Underwood

Above—Mrs. James L. Banks, Jr. (formerly Miss Vieva Fisher), of New York, at Newport's July Fourth celebration. Underwood & Underwood

Snapped at Newport July 4—Left to right, Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt, of New York, and Miss Pauline Diston, of Philadelphia, whose engagement to John Wanamaker, jr., was announced recently. Underwood & Underwood

Above—Miss Marion Tiffany, at Newport on July 4. Underwood & Underwood

On the right—Mrs. Joseph Harriman, watching Newport's Fourth of July parade. Underwood & Underwood