

Babe, an old Fire Department horse that has often drawn his chief to three-alarm fires over icy pavements on winter nights, has a lucky escape from the usual fate of the fire horse who has outlived his usefulness. Charlie Decker, Babe's former driver, has purchased him and will send him to a brother's stock farm in Tennessee. Here are the two friends saying goodby.
© Underwood & Underwood.

A new businesslike photograph of Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels, one of the two busiest Cabinet officers at the present time. Note the position of honor given his enlisted son.
Press Ill. Serv.

Canadian troops, here to stir British recruiting, arouse great enthusiasm. Above, the "Ladies from Hades" are cheering Mayor Mitchel at the reception at City Hall. Below, left to right: Lieutenant Colonel C. W. Darling, Lord Aberdeen, Lieutenant Colonel Percy A. Guthrie, Mayor Mitchel and Major General Wm. A. White, head of British recruiting in New York.
Paul Thompson

A new type of machine gun is being mounted on ordinary automobiles to be used for Home Defence purposes. It may be used for anti-aircraft defence, also. The humble flivver can carry this gun as well as the most expensive motor car.
© Underwood & Underwood.

British officers coming through deadly gas fumes. This picture taken at a training camp is a staged photo, but the gas is mighty real and altogether deadly.

Company M, 5th Maryland Guards, storing supplies on the site of their new quarters at Yaphank, Long Island, where they are preparing a camp for the New York State contingent of the new National Army. 'Tis said they have nightly skirmishes with the w. k. mosquito corps.
© Int. Film Serv.

Francis Ouimet comes back and wins the Western Golf Championship. Here he is with his new cup.
Edwin Levick.