

Colonel William Hayward, photographed in the training trenches of his command, the 15th Regiment (colored) N. Y. Guardsmen.
Underwood & Underwood

One of the country's very busiest men these days. A new photo of Secretary Baker at his desk in the War Office.
Press Illus. Serv.

Bradley Martin, the w. k. New York millionaire financier and clubman, hard at work in the Plattsburg trenches.
Amer. Press

Mr. Lloyd George is not overcome with grief, nor is he a hy fever sufferer. Merely a good speaking likeness of England's Premier, recently photographed at Dundee.
Central News

Football fans will recognize on the left Eddie Hart, famous captain of Princeton's 1916 and 1917 teams, now a member of the 7th Engineers at Atlanta, Ga.
Intern. Film Serv.

Rear Admiral A. W. Grant, now commanding our submarine force, who has been named by Secretary Daniels for appointment as Vice-Admiral.
Press Illus. Serv.

On the left—Bud Goodwin, the N. Y. A. C. champion swimmer who has never been defeated at his favorite distances, just after winning the quarter mile metropolitan championship at Rye Beach, N. Y.
Amer. Press

Below: Captain Robert A. Bartlett, who accompanied Peary to the North Pole and is now in command of the third relief party sent out to rescue Donald B. MacMillan's Crocker Land Arctic Expedition.
Press Illus. Serv.

Above: The youngest colonel in the world. Ten-year-old Jack Aagaard, honorary colonel of Company B, Engineer Corps, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Press Illus. Serv.

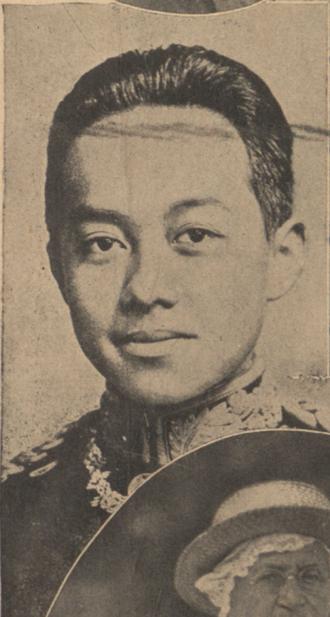

Dr. Alexis Carrel, the famous surgeon of the Rockefeller Institute, recently returned from France, at one of the "bomb exit" doors of his portable war hospital, at 64th Street and Avenue A, New York City.
Intern. Film Serv.

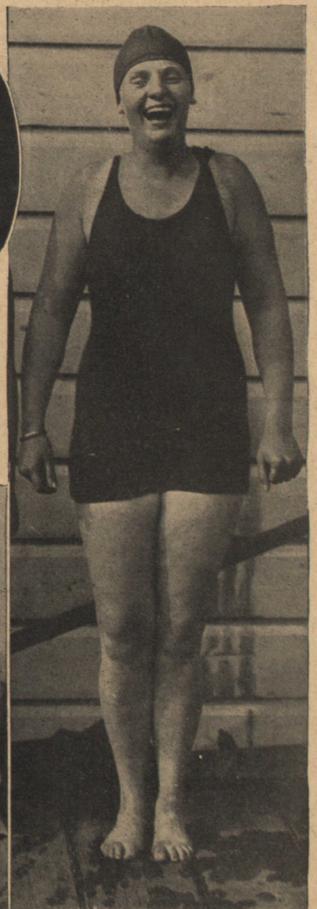

Surgeon General Gorgas of the U. S. army, who is giving his skilled services just now to solving the mosquito problem at the new conscript cantonment, Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I.
Press Illus. Serv.

On the left: Chofa Maha Vijiravudh, the youthful King of Siam, whose prosperous country of ten million people is the latest to declare war on Germany.
East News Serv.

Mrs. Schmidt, 77 years old, of Hilton, N. J., for 40 years a berry picker. Her average is over 150 quarts a day.
Greeley Photo

Miss Claire Galligan, National Woman's Swimming champion and winner of the 100-yard handicap at Rye Beach recently.
Amer. Press

Major General J. F. O'Ryan, commander of the Sixth Army Corps (N. Y. National Guard), and members of his staff. Left to right: Lieutenant Colonel H. S. Sternberger, Major E. Olmstead, Major General J. F. O'Ryan, Lieutenant Colonel F. W. Ward, and Major J. L. Kincaid.
Int. Film Serv.