

LAST MINUTE NEWS PICTURES of Our Fighting Men Overseas

Above: Laden with full marching equipment and accompanied by a supply train, a body of our troops leave their camp for the front. Kadel & Herbert

General Pershing accompanies Admiral Gleaves on an inspection tour of one of the warships that convoyed American troops to France. The Admiral is in charge of the squadron detailed for this purpose. Pictorial Press.

Few French would ignore the "No Trespassing" sign, but the American sentry on the left sees to it that no strangers enter the camp. Kadel & Herbert

On the left—A company of our marines ("first to fight") arrive in column of squads at their camp in France. This photograph was received in this country only last Wednesday. French Official, from Pict. Press.

Above—A photograph just received, showing a sergeant of marines forming his platoon in the company street of their camp "somewhere in France." French Official, from Pict. Press.

On the left, some of our boys are preparing to entrain for the front. Kadel & Herbert

Above—Three American marines at their first "chow" in camp "somewhere in France." Do you recognize any of these boys? French Official, from Pict. Press.