

Governor Whitman officially reviews the Send-Off Parade from the balcony of the Union League Club. In the centre Colonel Roosevelt, in white, is seen chatting with Lord Northcliffe; Mayor Mitchel acknowledges a shouted greeting from a friend, and just back of the Mayor stands Major General Bell and Major General Hoyle, in command at Governor's Island. Others in the reviewing stand are Major General O'Ryan and staff, Adjutant General Stotesbury, Rear Admiral Nathaniel R. Usher, Brigadier General White, D. S. O., and staff of the British Recruiting Office and many others notable in military and civil life.

Paul Thompson.

Would rather dodge shells than traffic. Miss Helen Owen, recently returned from France, where she drove an ambulance at the front, says she'd rather take her chance with the shells, after her first day driving a big motor truck through New York traffic.

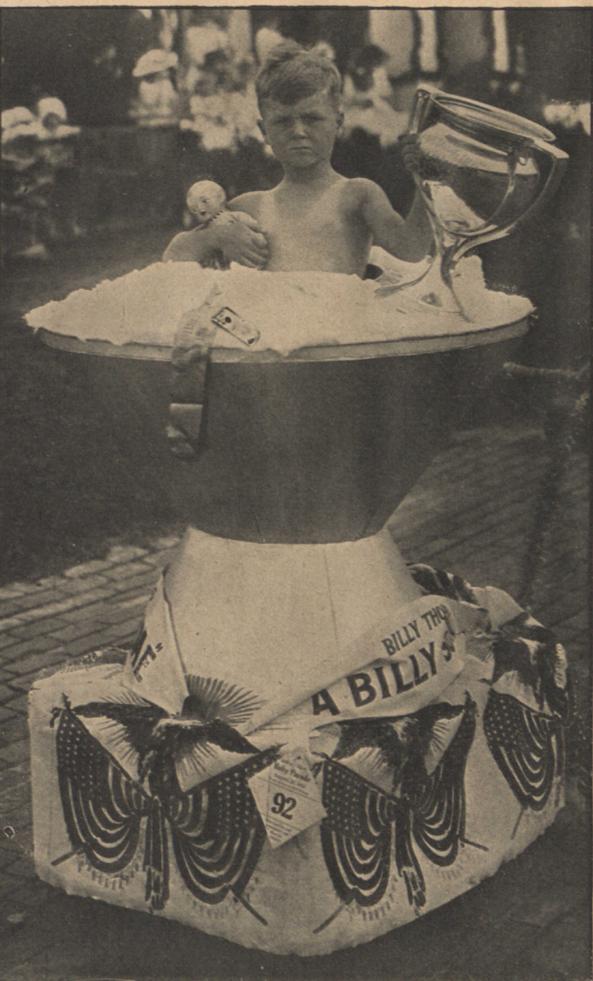

The fathers of these healthy, happy little tots have gone to war. Were it not for the Edgewater (N. J.) Creche, these kiddies would have a hard time of it, the mothers being totally unable to provide even the necessities. Fifty children are now housed there.

Amer. Press

Miss Barbara Sands, as France, at the entertainment given by Mrs. Ogden Mills at Newport for the aid of the Allies' destitute. Miss Sands is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt.

Underwood & Underwood

Col. Henry Watterson, famous editor of "The Louisville Courier," recently interviewed at Brighton Beach, expressed himself as opposed to the Pope's Peace Plan. He wants no peace that leaves Germany militant.

Central News

Above, Mme. Charlotte Maitre, serving as a Red Cross nurse, has won the Croix de Guerre; a gold medal for fighting epidemics, and the Legion of Honor. To the right—Wounded last June, she is standing at the entrance to a front line operating room.

Underwood & Underwood

Left, Almost as large as the boy. Billy Thompson, alias Billy Sunday, is not going to let go of the loving cup he won as first prize in his division at the Asbury Park Baby Parade.

Amer. Press

Left, Lieut. Marchal, famous French aviator, now an Austrian prisoner, captured after a flight of 807 miles, during which he dropped proclamations on Berlin. He was within 60 miles of Russia when forced to descend.

Press Illus.

