

Guard units from practically every state in the Union make up the "Rainbow Division" under canvas at Camp Mills, Garden City, L. I. Photographed especially for The Tribune by E. L. Akers

Photograph just received in this country of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor on a trip of inspection through the ruins of a French glass factory in the Aisne district. Mr. Astor is an ensign in the service of the U. S. Navy.

French Off. Pic. Press

The vanguard of New York's contribution to the National (Draft) Army arrive with colors flying at Camp Upton, L. I., which will soon have over 40,000 men in training.

Dick Kenny, champion horse buster, Company D, 22d N. Y. Engineers, breaking in Nero, one of the bad-uns at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C.

International Film

The President and Mrs. Wilson going aboard the tender of the Presidential Yacht Mayflower, at Gloucester, Mass., last Sunday, where Mr. Wilson visited his friend and confidential adviser, Colonel E. M. House. The fourth member of the procession cheerfully lugs the President's complete collection of golf sticks.

International Film