

"Grey Dawn" leads "Varuna" around the Captain's Island mark in a special race on the Sound for the Larchmont O class a week ago yesterday.
B. Lesick.

This open fireplace is one of the comforts of home that Lieutenants T. Parsons and E. B. Gritman of the 10th Infantry have rigged up in their army tent at Camp Meade where the drafted men of Pennsylvania are being trained. Their mantel place inscription tells its own story.
International Film.

Hudson Maxim, famous inventor, enjoys a bit of mental relaxation by working out a new war game on his chessboard at Lake Hopatcong.
Press Ill. Serv.

On the left: The 7th Regiment (N. Y.) arrive in Spartanburg, S. C. for intensive training at Camp Wadsworth.
A. P. A.

The photographer makes a lucky snap of the arrest of an anarchist during the recent general revolutionary outbreak in Madrid, Spain.
Underwood & Underwood.

King Alfonso of Spain (x) reviews a battery of heavy howitzers at the recent military manoeuvres of the Spanish army at Segovia.
Underwood & Underwood.

On the right: Col. Foster of the 12th Regiment vigorously protests being presented with a bouquet as he leads his regiment down Fifth Ave. in their send-off parade. The 12th goes to Spartanburg to join the other New York regiments that are in training there.
A. P. A.