SOLID MAHOGANY FOUR-POSTER, $21.50 EACH

ALL THE BEAUTY AND CHARM of the old is embodied in these exceptionally good solid mahogany Four-Poster Beds of purest Colonial design.

In literally hundreds of homes in the metropolitan district and throughout the country these beds stand today as typical examples of Hathaway refinement and taste in furniture.

You will find here a most interesting collection of Four-Posters representing a pleasing range of designs, and yet they all have in common a certain note of unusual smartness and quaint dignity.

And yet Four-Posters are only an instance of the excellent designs that are shown here in all manner of furniture. This Fall, particularly, our floors seem to be more attractive than ever. This week, in the quiet atmosphere of Hathaway's, you will be especially interested in seeing such striking offerings as these:

A reputation is built by sticking to the job and making good.

The Hotel Belleclair has won a good reputation by sticking to a definite course—viz., providing a real home for its guests and giving them good things to eat.

It is a big job to keep a New York Hotel homelike—free from elements that disturb the peace and happiness of a household—but The Belleclair has made good.

Its reputation now circles the globe. It has friends everywhere. They tell their friends about it. And the sum and substance of what they say is: "The Belleclair makes you feel at home because it is a home. Large rooms, fine baths, good beds, clean linen, good service and the best homelike cooking in New York."

That is a good enough reputation, is it not?
